

THE TIMES.

AN ALL HOME-MADE PAPER.

CLAY CITY, THURSDAY, NOV. 28, 1901.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. B. Eaton has been ill for some few days.

Mr. Fields, of Lexington, was in town Tuesday.

As usual, the town is flooded with drummers.

J. W. McKinney, of Winchester, was here Monday.

Alfred Holman and Press Nolan were here Tuesday.

Ed Edwards, of Dayton, Ohio, was here Saturday on business.

Gen. Pass. Agt. Chas. Scott, of Lexington, was in town Tuesday.

John Roberts and W. Berry, of West Bend, were here Tuesday.

Justice-elect Jno. W. Tuttle was over from Spoutspring Monday.

W. H. Wiseman, merchant of Sams, was in town a short while Monday.

G. W. Everman, of West Bend, has a baby eleven months old with scarlet fever.

Rev. R. A. Irvin filled his pulpit at this place both Sunday morning and at night.

Circuit Court convened at Irvine Monday. There are several murder cases on docket.

Misses Jennie Norton, Williams, and Mrs. Revell of Stanton were visiting in town Friday.

Ide Scholl agent for the Singer Sewing Machine, has moved from Stanton to Clay City.

A gang of hunters came up from Lexington Tuesday to try their luck with the mountain birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Oldham, of Levee, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Derickson, last week.

Cannel coal is selling at 17c. per bushel on this market. A car load has been sold at this figure this week.

Our thanks are due Dr. B. Littlepage and others for their assistance in getting out this issue of the TIMES.

The mail route from this place to Irvine has been discontinued. It now just goes to Union Hall and returns daily.

John Chaffin, who has been confined to his room for several days with malaria, is able to be out on the streets.

M. B. Eubank, of Indian Fields, was in town Tuesday with a load of shotes he had sold to one of our butchers.

B. F. Barnett, a business-like young man, of Spoutspring, is at the case in this office to learn the art preservative.

Farmers have had a fine season for hog killing, and many a porker has felt the fatal blow, owing to the scarcity of corn for feed.

Mrs. Chas. Everman and daughter Miss Lucy, of Altivista, Mo., are visiting the family of Wm. Everman and other relatives on Snow creek.

The telephone line between this place and Irvine has been put in good repair for the winter. D. D. Potts superintended the work.

Everett Williams and Miss Letha Blanton, both of color, eloped from this place Monday night bent on matrimony. The girl is but 15 years old.

A Sunday school was organized in the Waldron building Sunday afternoon for the benefit of those in that end of town who can not conveniently attend the school at the church.

Our new advertisers in this issue are too numerous to make special mention of each one, but will say that each business represented in our columns is reliable and worthy the support of the public.

With this issue we send out a few sample copies. If you like the paper well enough to pay us 50c. cash for it, you can get it for one whole year. Or we will send it to you for 75 cents on time.

Two weeks ago Ben Hiley and Eddy Stevenson, 13, late of Menifee, became engaged in a difficulty over a dog in which Hiley was stabbed three times. Hiley is not seriously hurt, and will soon be out again.

In the case of Grant Baker and Bob Henry vs. Clay City for damages sustained in the loss of two mules being drowned from the Pontoon bridge, judgment was given against the town for something over $200.

Morgan R. Lyle, formerly of the Climax Stave & Tie Co., at this place, has moved to Jackson where he has received a position with the Jackson Coal Co. Mr. Lyle is a gentleman, and one whom we regret to move from our midst.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c 6 39

In another column, our readers will find a letter from Rev. C. W. Clay, for the past two years pastor of the Methodist church at this place. Everybody here wishes Brother Clay the best success wherever he may be stationed.

For your cloaks, and capes, go to Mrs. J. W. Williams, Clay City, Ky.

The Pompey Branch school house, where Rev. R. A. Irvin teaches, took fire Wednesday from a defective flue and might have burned, had not some one passing the road, seeing it, sounded the alarm.

R. R. Perry, of Winchester, tells us he built and occupied the first business house in new Clay City. It was near where the old depot was and was used for a feed store.

The Mutual Handle Co. has put in a dynamo of 50 light capacity for the purpose of lighting their plant. This plant has become one of the leading establishments of the City and a cordial invitation is extended to all such concerns to locate in our midst.

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

The Clay City National Bank has been represented in our advertising columns for nearly five years, and we have found this institution to be one of the solidest, financially, and to possess the most accommodating, yet precautions officers, of any institution of its kind we know of. No one has ever lost a cent by doing business with this bank.

Rev. S. M. Carrier, pastor of the Methodist Church at this place from '96 to '99, but last year located at Morehead, received $100 more from his circuit than any former pastor had ever received, and his churches strongly petitioned his return. He is on the same work this year.

Mr. John P. Vaughn, of Lawrenceburg, visited relatives at this place several days recently. Mr. Vaughn says he has missed the TIMES very much since its temporary suspension. He is a native of this county, and is a staunch Democrat, and a member of the Confederate Orphan Brigade. In his town the Confederate veterans have erected a handsome monument in memory of their dead.

When the TIMES was first started it was printed on a sheet not larger than an almanac, but we promised to enlarge it as the patronage would justify. We did it. This is the case now with the Clay City TIMES. Be liberal in your patronage and we will be more than liberal in its enlargement and improvement in general.

MATRIMONIAL.

Rev. Pence, pastor of the Methodist church at this place, surprised his friends by getting married Thursday, Nov. 14 to a Miss Duncan of Franklin County. It is Rev. Pence's second venture. He is 24 years old, has two children, five and two years old. The bride is fifteen. They both will attend the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester through this session, after which they will occupy the parsonage at this place. The TIMES extends congratulations.

James Meridy, of Barbourville, Ky., has a matrimonial record that will be hard to beat. He was divorced from his thirteenth wife last week and married his fourteenth one hour later. Meridy is forty years old and in appearance resembles Buffalo Bill. Four of his wives are dead, nine have been divorced and the fourteenth was a widow.—Winchester Democrat.

Unless the local authorities do better work in controlling the small-pox epidemic at Jackson, Winchester, as one of the most exposed points, will have to quarantine against her. We are informed that two or three of the business men there who employ a number of men are opposed to the local quarantining of suspects, because it will interfere with their work, and in their selfishness, are willing to risk an epidemic rather than to see their business interfered with and their influence is sufficient to prevent the civil authorities from taking the strict measures that should be taken.

Dr. McCormack, Chairman of the State Board of Health, has threatened a general quarantine if stricter measures are not taken.

The L. & E. road has offered to donate a thousand dollars to assist the State Board in its work there.—Winchester Democrat.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

Lakative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

The Clay City Lumber & Stave Co. contemplates opening a Livery and Feed stable Jan. 1, 1902. They have just completed a new barn.

R. R. Perry, of the Winchester Sentinel, was in town a short while last Thursday in the interest of his paper, and gave our office a pleasant call. Bro. Perry is publishing a splendid paper and it is very highly appreciated in our sanctum. Barring its politics, the Sentinel is a commendable paper.
